

1300 ADVERT—COUNTRY LIFE JULY 1969

Compact, little more than twelve feet long in fact, yet leg-roomy and wide at the elbows. Flexible at low speeds. Lively when it counts most. Economical to run. A car with a special ability to hug the road and corner in a most re-assuring manner. This is the Wolseley 1300 Mk. II, a luxuriously appointed four door saloon with so much of what you really need. Ask your dealer for a trial run.
